

Biological Sciences Division

Rodland speaks at breast cancer forum in Olympia

Pacific Northwest National Laboratory biologist Karin Rodland gave a presentation entitled “Breast Cancer Biomarker Research in Washington State” at a public forum on breast cancer held October 24 in Olympia. The forum, entitled “Early Detection Provides Patient Options,” was sponsored by Advanced Imaging Technologies (AIT), Richland, and chaired by former PNNL director Lura Powell, AIT CEO and President. Governor Christine Gregoire was also a speaker.

Karin Rodland,
karin.rodland@pnl.gov

A video of the forum can be viewed at <http://www.tvw.org/MediaPlayer/Archived/WME.cfm?EVNum=2005100126&TYPE=V>. Rodland’s talk is at the 1-hour, 34-minute mark, which can be accessed by dragging your cursor along the strip at the bottom after the entire video loads. Rodland’s presentation is also available as a PDF.