SBA Contracting Opportunities

<http://www.sba.gov/size/indexableofsize.html>

SBA's website for the North American Industrial Classification System (NAICS). Search engine to determine the appropriate NAICS and corresponding size standards. The NAICS code and corresponding size standard is the only means to determine if a company is small or large.

<https://eweb1sp.sba.gov/hubzone>

The SBA's website that identifies each Historically Underutilized Business (HUB) Zone, and HUB Zone electronic application form. Each prime contractor as well as the Department of Energy offices have HUB Zone goals.

<http://www.bpn.gov/ccr>

This is a single point of entry for vendors that want to do business with the Federal Government. CCR will automatically feed the SBA's Dynamic Small Business database if a vendor is a small business.

http://dsbs.sba.gov/pro-net/dsp_dsbs.cfm

U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA)'s Dynamic Small Business Search, is an electronic database of procurement information for and about small businesses. It is a search engine for contracting officers, a marketing tool for small firms and a "link" to procurement opportunities and information. Information entered into CCR will also populate this database for small businesses.
