

Q is for Quail

The Quail that are found out in the shrub-steppe area are California Quail. They are found only in the western United States, and they like range and agriculture land. They are 9 and half to 11 inches in size.